This item was tabled.

Discussion Regarding Playgrounds, Splash Park, and Priority Lists

Mayor Rosa asked the council to consider creating a priority list for the administration body and department heads to work from. Mayor Rosa stated it would be helpful to know what the council would like to see happen and in what order.

Those present discussed seeking grants and engineering for various projects they would like to see the city pursue. The list of projects included water bottle fill stations located at city parks, playground equipment at city parks including Dayley and McBride Parks, obtaining a shoreline permit along Lincoln Boulevard for the Snake River Bank Stabilization Project, removing the old tire in the river, bringing the Baseball Fields located on J Street up to Tri-city standards, maintaining the Hockey Rink, continue discussions for a sidewalk down Villa Drive, and the addition of a splashpad at Central Park.

Those present discussed options for completing the projects and seeking grant funding.
